Description:

Targeted Mental Health in Schools (TaMHS) is a three year pathfinder programme aimed at supporting the development of innovative models of therapeutic and holistic mental health support in schools for children and young people aged 5 to 13 at risk of, and/or experiencing, mental health problems, as well as their families.

Helen Young, Mental Health Learning Centre, Willerby Hill, will facilitate the morning session, with input from members of her TaMHS team.

Michelle Coates, Teaching and Learning Consultant for ER SIS will facilitate the afternoon networking session, looking at the latest subject updates and information, useful free resources and all the latest SHaD diploma news.

An agenda for this meeting will be sent to you nearer the time.
